 Saying (C) "Stand and deliver" for he (G) were a bold deceiver

Chorus:

Mush-a (D) ring dum-a do dum-a da
 (G) Wack fall the daddy-o, (C) wack fall the daddy-o
 There's (G) whiskey (D7) in the (G) jar

- 2) I (G) counted out his money and it (em) made a pretty penny
 I (C) put it in me pocket and I (G) took it home to Jenny
 She (G) sighed and she swore that she (em) never would deceive me
 But the (C) devil take the women for they (G) never can be easy

(Chorus)

- 3) I (G) went up to my chamber, all (em) for to take a slumber

 But (G) Jenny blew me charges and she (em) filled them up with water
 Then (C) sent for captain Farrell to be (G) ready for the slaughter

(Chorus)

- 4) 't was (G) early in the morning, just (em) before I rose to travel
 Up(C) comes a band of footmen and (G) likewise captain Farrell
 I (G) first produced me pistol for she (em) stole away me rapier
 I (C) couldn't shoot the water, so a (G) prisoner I was taken

(Chorus)

- 5) Now (G) there's some take delight in the (em) carriages a rolling and (C) others take delight in the (G) hurling and the bowling but (G) I take delight in the (em) juice of the barley and (C) courting pretty fair maids in the (G) morning bright and early

(Chorus)

- 6) If (G) anyone can aid me 't is my (em) brother in the army
 If (C) I can find his station in (G) Cork or in Killarney
 And (G) if he'll go with me, we'll (em) go rovin' through Killkenny
 And (C) I'm sure he'll treat me better than my (G) own a-sporting Jenny

(Chorus)
