

Uncle Nobby's Steamboat

Intro

Wolfe tones/Irish folk

Violine

5
Come for a trip on Uncle Nobby's Steamboat where you can hide your worries on a high float and we'll take a trip to leprachauns and shamrocks and hide our minds and troubles for a while And we're going where the grass is growing

9

14
gree--en to a misty land that no one else has seen where oblivion takes the mind's reality and 19

reality fades in to a memo-ry

1) Come for a trip on Uncle Nobby's Steamboat where you can hide your worries on a high float and we'll take a trip to leprachauns and shamrocks and hide our minds and troubles for a while

Chorus And we're going where the grass is growing green to a misty land that no one else has seen where oblivion takes the mind's reality and reality fades into a memory

2) Captain Bluebeard gives a smile at the gangway side to meet you
The first mate by his side with a workcard if he needs you They'll take you to your berth, your cabin's cool and cosy Full steam ahead we're ready for to go

Chorus

3) Bring on the dancing girls the show is now in motion the choo choo train is gone, it's halfway through the mountains the fairies and the witch, the banshee's drinking brandy Uncle Nobby at last he's in command

Chorus

4) Now we're off to Tir na Nóg, the goddess of love is gráinne Cuchulainn can't get in in his coat he has no fainne
The leprachauns go by in a twinkling mystic vision
The shamrock lies a-mourning in the grave

Chorus